

MES-102: Instruction in Higher Education

1. What is the meaning of instruction in higher education?
2. Explain the nature and functions of teaching at the higher education level.
3. Discuss the characteristics and expectations of adult learners in higher education.
4. Describe the stages of teaching-learning process in a college or university setup.
5. Compare and contrast lecture method and discussion method in classroom instruction.
6. What is team teaching? Explain its advantages and limitations in higher education.
7. Explain the importance of using project-based learning and case studies in teaching.
8. What are the key elements of effective instructional communication in a college class?
9. What is an instructional plan? Discuss the components of an effective instructional plan.

10. Explain the steps involved in designing a lesson plan for college teaching.
11. How can educational media (audio-visual aids, ICT tools) be used effectively in teaching?
12. Discuss the role of ICT in enhancing teaching-learning experiences.
13. What are the different types of evaluation techniques used in higher education?
14. Explain the role of formative and summative evaluation in instructional improvement.
15. How does student feedback contribute to improving teaching performance?