

MES-103: Higher Education – The Psycho-Social Context

1. What are the major objectives of higher education in India?
2. Discuss the historical development of higher education in India.
3. What is the role of higher education in national development?
4. Explain the characteristics of adult learners in higher education.
5. How can teachers address the diverse needs of learners in higher education settings?
6. Describe different instructional strategies used in higher education.
7. Define motivation. How does motivation influence learning at the higher education level?
8. Explain the role of intrinsic and extrinsic motivation in student learning.
9. How can a teacher promote a motivating classroom environment in college?
10. What are the psycho-social problems faced by students in higher education?
11. Discuss the role of peer groups and student-teacher relationships in academic performance.
12. How does family background and socio-economic status affect learning in higher education?

13. Explain the importance of inculcating values and ethics through higher education.

14. What are the major challenges to value education in universities?

15. Discuss the role of higher education in promoting national integration and social cohesion.